Rider Release and Hold Harmless Agreement

The Participant acknowledges the inherent risks which are involved in riding and working around horses. These risks may include, but are not limited to: damage to personal property, illness, bodily injury, trauma, or death resulting from a fall while riding or being in close proximity to horses.

The Participant further understands that both horse and rider can be injured in the normal course of events while hacking, schooling, or competing, and therefore agrees to indemnify and hold harmless After Hours Farm and its employees, and further release them from any liability or responsibility for any accident, injury, damage, or death to the Participant or any property or horse the Participant owns, or to any family member or spectator accompanying the Participant while on the premises of After Hours Farm.

Under North Carolina Law, an equine activity sponsor or equine professional is not liable for an injury to or the death of a participant in equine activities resulting exclusively from the inherent risks of equine activities.
